Submission (on LMS and through email) Time: 15 minutes

Wednesday, 1st July, 2020

Course Instructor(s)

Hafiz M Tayyeb Nadeem.

Total Marks: 55

Instructions:

1. The final exam will be attempted offline in the student's own handwriting (in readable way).
2. The students will use A4 size blank white sheets to attempt the exam (portrait format unless a diagram or table requires landscape). Each sheet of the A4 size paper MUST have the Roll Number, Name, the course code, name of the course and Signature of the student at the top of EACH sheet.
3. Students will use cam-scanner, MS lens, or an equivalent application to scan and convert their hand-written answer sheets into a SINGLE pdf file (keeping the correct order of pages and question numbers), which they will submit on Google Classroom (Class Code: 2rppkaj) and MUST also email to tayyeb.nadeem@nu.edu.pk (of the concerned course/lab instructor) which has been provided. They will be given 15 minutes (after the 3 hours attempt time) for this purpose. All students must use the standard file name format (Full course code - Roll number e.g. CS-305-17i-0123). Submissions after 30 minutes may not be accepted. Try to submit soon after 3 hours of attempt time and do not wait for 15 minutes to be elapsed.
4. For proven cheating/ plagiarism, student will get an F grade even if the student had opted for S/U grade, and the case will be referred to DDC (Department's Disciplinary Committee). Instructors will conduct vivas of randomly selected students or in case of doubt (significantly different attempt as compared to past performance in the course or matching attempt with other students). Plagiarism includes sharing an attempt to other students (copy providing). Students who are not able to satisfactorily answer instructor's questions (based on the exam as well as slightly lateral but related concepts) during viva will also be considered as plagiarism cases.
5. Students should carry a clean scanning that is free from any marks/stains etc.
